

Art for Everyone

In last week's newsletter, we shared resources for supporting local artists and art. Thanks to the positive feedback, we wanted to send some more of our favorite resources. This week, we're focusing on our favorite creative resources and ideas for kids and families at home together.

Open Culture - K-12th Grade

Open Culture curates free cultural and education material. This collection provides a list of free educational resources for K-12 students (kindergarten through high school students) and their parents and teachers.

This link connects to over 200 free kids educational resources, including free video lessons/tutorials; free mobile apps; free audiobooks, ebooks and textbooks; quality YouTube channels; free foreign language lessons; test prep materials; and free web resources in academic subjects like literature, history, science and computing.

Vi Hart and Khan Academy

Many assume that the worlds of art and mathematics are at odds, and we think that's too bad! In her videos on Khan Academy, Vi Hart seamlessly blends those two worlds to capture the abstract. You can find a playlist of her videos on Khan Academy, a site which provides hundreds of helpful advice on a variety of subjects.
